Discussed the continued compliance with the need to practice Social Distancing and continuing not to have traditional service. Bro Brian stated he would do the same type of message that he did on Sunday Morning. Message on FB was supported well had over 500 views.

Discussed the need to run reduced staffing during office hours and requirement to keep one male person there to provide support.

Staff to be more virtual with reliance on Phones and email while out of the office.

Bro Andy stated that they planned on renting the lift and equipment to begin pressure washing the church building in preparation for Easter Service.

Discussion was had regarding the need to cancel all activities on the calendar.

Bro Stan and Jason E. were going to contact Steven Curtis Chapman to reschedule the concert slated for April 3rd.

Discussed the possibility of Passion Week being cancelled. Bro David was going to talk to Bro Tommy Middleton for more information.

Due to possible financial burden the Corona Virus has placed on the community, the Benevolence would be restricted to Members only. A case-by case evaluation would be made to determine if and how assistance could be provided.

We will meet again on Sunday afternoon either in person or virtually to continue to monitor the situation.

Closing Prayer Bro Derek
